Explanations for users

Justice System

According to the level of organization of courts, judicial power is exercised by:

- Municipal courts,
- District courts,
- Supreme Court,
- District Commercial courts,
- Municipal Courts for Minor Offenses, and
- Higher Court for Minor Offences.

Courts are bodies of state power.

In the performance of judicial power, they decide on disputes over basic personal relations, rights and obligations of citizens, pronounce convictions and other measures to perpetrators of criminal offences and other offences punishable by law in force. Also decide on the legality of various acts of state bodies, resolve or settle disputes about property and labor relations, and other relations as set forth by law.

Observed units

Observed units are perpetrators of criminal acts.

The notion of a criminal offense perpetrator means adult and juvenile perpetrator of criminal offences or acts whether as perpetrator, co-perpetrator, incentive or assistance in such an act.

Adult perpetrator of criminal offence is considered adult person who at the time of committing the criminal offence was or is 18 years old.

Juvenile perpetrator of criminal offence is the person who at the time of committing the criminal act was or is 14 years old, but has not reached 18 years of age.

Juvenile perpetrators of criminal offence are divided into:

- a) Young juvenile, and
- b) Adult juvenile.

The young are juvenile perpetrators of criminal offences that belong to the age groups 14-16. To this category may be pronounced only educational measures.

The juvenile adults are persons belonging to age group of 16-18 years.
